

ACADEMIC LEARNING COMPACTS

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND HUMANITIES LATIN AMERICAN CARIBBEAN AND LATINX STUDIES - B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Cultural knowledge: Through the core courses for the LAS BA degree, students will develop a knowledge base and understanding of the complex diversity of nations and cultures within Latin America and the Caribbean, including the Latinx population in the US, and how they interact with one another, the United States and the world. To this end, a program name change is being proposed: Latin American, Caribbean and Latinx Studies Program. Across this and the next reporting cycle, we will revise our mission.
2. Multidisciplinary research skills and lifelong learning: Students will demonstrate competence regarding the terminology and research methods, tools, and technologies of various disciplines within the humanities, arts, and social sciences. These competencies are also seen as life-long learning skills and awareness of potential learning experiences beyond the classroom setting.
3. Linguistic Competence: LAS BA graduates will demonstrate language skills at the first semester of the intermediate college level, at least, in one of the following languages spoken in Latin America and the Caribbean: Spanish, Portuguese, or French.

Critical Thinking

1. Cultural knowledge: Through the core courses for the LAS BA degree, students will develop a knowledge base and understanding of the complex diversity of nations and cultures within Latin America and the Caribbean, including the Latinx population in the US, and how they interact with one another, the United States and the world. To this end, a program name change is being proposed: Latin American, Caribbean and Latinx Studies Program. Across this and the next reporting cycle, we will revise our mission.
2. Multidisciplinary research skills and lifelong learning: Students will demonstrate competence regarding the terminology and research methods, tools, and technologies of various disciplines within the humanities, arts, and social sciences. These competencies are also seen as life-long learning skills and awareness of potential learning experiences beyond the classroom setting.

Communication

1. Cultural knowledge: Through the core courses for the LAS BA degree, students will develop a knowledge base and understanding of the complex diversity of nations and cultures within Latin America and the Caribbean, including the Latinx population in the US, and how they interact with one another, the United States and the world. To this end, a program name change is being proposed: Latin American, Caribbean and Latinx Studies Program. Across this and the next reporting cycle, we will revise our mission.

2. Multidisciplinary research skills and lifelong learning: Students will demonstrate competence regarding the terminology and research methods, tools, and technologies of various disciplines within the humanities, arts, and social sciences. These competencies are also seen as life-long learning skills and awareness of potential learning experiences beyond the classroom setting.
3. Linguistic Competence: LAS BA graduates will demonstrate language skills at the first semester of the intermediate college level, at least, in one of the following languages spoken in Latin America and the Caribbean: Spanish, Portuguese, or French.

Assessment of Latin American Caribbean and Latinx Studies - B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Tests
- Projects
- Presentations
- Surveys
- Embedded questions
- Exams