

ACADEMIC LEARNING COMPACTS

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND HUMANITIES RELIGION AND CULTURAL STUDIES - B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Studying Religion and Culture

Students enrolled in the Religion and Cultural Studies program will demonstrate the ability to identify, analyze, and evaluate various definitions of religion and how they are used by different groups.

2. Research in Religion & Cultural Studies

Students in upper-level Religion & Cultural Studies courses will demonstrate research skills including constructing a well-formed thesis, identifying appropriate scholarly sources, and utilizing interdisciplinary methods in their analysis and critical discussion of a specific topic in Religion & Cultural Studies.

3. Cultural Relevance of Research in Religion & Cultural Studies

Religion & Cultural Studies majors will be able to identify and discuss the relevance of critical research in Religion & Cultural Studies to contemporary social, political, philosophical, psychological, historical, environmental, medical, and/or economic issues.

Critical Thinking

1. Studying Religion and Culture

Students enrolled in the Religion and Cultural Studies program will demonstrate the ability to identify, analyze, and evaluate various definitions of religion and how they are used by different groups.

2. Research in Religion & Cultural Studies

Students in upper-level Religion & Cultural Studies courses will demonstrate research skills including constructing a well-formed thesis, identifying appropriate scholarly sources, and utilizing interdisciplinary methods in their analysis and critical discussion of a specific topic in Religion & Cultural Studies.

3. Cultural Relevance of Research in Religion & Cultural Studies

Religion & Cultural Studies majors will be able to identify and discuss the relevance of critical research in Religion & Cultural Studies to contemporary social, political, philosophical, psychological, historical, environmental, medical, and/or economic issues.

Communication

1. Research in Religion & Cultural Studies

Students in upper-level Religion & Cultural Studies courses will demonstrate research skills including constructing a well-formed thesis, identifying appropriate scholarly sources, and utilizing interdisciplinary methods in their analysis and critical discussion of a specific topic in Religion & Cultural Studies.

2. Cultural Relevance of Research in Religion & Cultural Studies

Religion & Cultural Studies majors will be able to identify and discuss the relevance of critical research in Religion & Cultural Studies to contemporary social, political, philosophical, psychological, historical, environmental, medical, and/or economic issues.

Assessment of Religion and Cultural Studies - B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Tests
- Research projects
- Research papers
- Oral and written presentations