

College of Arts and Humanities
Academic Learning Compacts

French - B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

- 1. Graduating seniors will exhibit advanced oral expression in French and speak at the level of Avancé Moyen to Avancé Élevé (advanced mid to advanced high) on the ACTFL scale (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages).
- 2. Graduating seniors will demonstrate advanced writing skills on a number of subjects at the level Avancé Moyen to Avancé Élevé (advanced mid to advanced high) on the ACTFL scale (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages).
- 3. Graduating seniors will read in French with advanced comprehension at the level of Avancé Moyen to Avancé Élevé (advanced mid to advanced high) on the ACTFL scale (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages).
- 4. Graduating seniors will demonstrate advanced listening comprehension on a number of subjects at the level Avancé Moyen to Avancé Élevé (advanced mid to advanced high) on the ACTFL scale (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages).
- 5. Graduating seniors will have the ability to assess and interpret French and Francophone literary works. They will demonstrate knowledge of the technics of literary analysis as well as knowledge of literary history from the middle ages to the 21st century.
- 6. Graduating seniors will demonstrate knowledge of French and Francophone countries based on the countries' history and cultures, their people and their influences around the world.
- 7. Students in the French B.A Program will evaluate their perceived development in the following: languages skills, cultural awareness and comprehension.
- 8. Graduating students will demonstrate the writing and oral skills developed in the French B.A. program through the submission of a required online portfolio as part of their graduation requirements. The portfolio summarizes their tenure in the French B.A. program.

Critical Thinking

- 1. Graduating seniors will exhibit advanced oral expression in French and speak at the level of Avancé Moyen to Avancé Élevé (advanced mid to advanced high) on the ACTFL scale (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages).
- 2. Graduating seniors will demonstrate advanced writing skills on a number of subjects at the level Avancé Moyen to Avancé Élevé (advanced mid to advanced high) on the ACTFL scale (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages).
- 3. Graduating seniors will read in French with advanced comprehension at the level of Avancé Moyen to Avancé Élevé (advanced mid to advanced high) on the ACTFL scale (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages).
- 4. Graduating seniors will demonstrate advanced listening comprehension on a number of subjects at the level Avancé Moyen to Avancé Élevé (advanced mid to advanced high) on the ACTFL scale (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages).
- 5. Graduating seniors will have the ability to assess and interpret French and Francophone literary works. They will demonstrate knowledge of the technics of literary analysis as well as knowledge of literary history from the middle ages to the 21st century.
- 6. Graduating seniors will demonstrate knowledge of French and Francophone countries based on the countries' history and cultures, their people and their influences around the world.
- 7. Students in the French B.A Program will evaluate their perceived development in the following: languages skills, cultural awareness and comprehension.
- 8. Graduating students will demonstrate the writing and oral skills developed in the French B.A. program through the submission of a required online portfolio as part of their graduation requirements. The portfolio summarizes their tenure in the French B.A. program.

Communication

- 1. Graduating seniors will exhibit advanced oral expression in French and speak at the level of Avancé Moyen to Avancé Élevé (advanced mid to advanced high) on the ACTFL scale (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages).
- 2. Graduating seniors will demonstrate advanced writing skills on a number of subjects at the level Avancé Moyen to Avancé Élevé (advanced mid to advanced high) on the ACTFL scale (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages).

3. Graduating seniors will read in French with advanced comprehension at the level of Avancé Moyen to Avancé Élevé (advanced mid to advanced high) on the ACTFL scale (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages).
4. Graduating seniors will demonstrate advanced listening comprehension on a number of subjects at the level Avancé Moyen to Avancé Élevé (advanced mid to advanced high) on the ACTFL scale (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages).
5. Graduating seniors will have the ability to assess and interpret French and Francophone literary works. They will demonstrate knowledge of the technics of literary analysis as well as knowledge of literary history from the middle ages to the 21st century.
6. Graduating seniors will demonstrate knowledge of French and Francophone countries based on the countries' history and cultures, their people and their influences around the world.
7. Students in the French B.A Program will evaluate their perceived development in the following: languages skills, cultural awareness and comprehension.
8. Graduating students will demonstrate the writing and oral skills developed in the French B.A. program through the submission of a required online portfolio as part of their graduation requirements. The portfolio summarizes their tenure in the French B.A. program.

Assessment of French - B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Tests
- Essays
- Recordings
- Portfolios
- Papers
- Presentations