

College of Arts and Humanities
Academic Learning Compacts

Modern Languages Combination, B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Graduating seniors will exhibit advanced oral skills in the primary and secondary languages.
2. Graduating seniors will exhibit advanced reading skills and comprehension in the primary and secondary languages.
3. Graduating seniors will have the ability to identify cultural characteristics of the countries where the primary and secondary languages are spoken, based on the countries' history and literature.
4. Graduating seniors will have an appreciation of the historical development of the primary and secondary languages, and an awareness and appreciation of their dialect differences.

Critical Thinking

5. Graduating seniors will demonstrate an understanding of similarities and differences in the cultures of the primary and secondary languages.
6. Graduating seniors will have the ability to assess and interpret literary works in the primary and secondary languages.
7. Graduating seniors will have the ability to compare and contrast cultural and historical differences between the United States and countries where the primary and secondary languages of their major are spoken.

Communication

8. Graduating seniors will exhibit advanced oral skills in the primary and secondary languages.
9. Graduating seniors will write in the primary and secondary languages at a professional and/or graduate school level.

Assessment of Modern Languages Combination, B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- tests
- critical essays
- oral examinations
- papers
- letters
- graded discussions