

College of Arts and Humanities
Academic Learning Compacts

Theatre: Acting, B.F.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Students completing our BFA in Acting will demonstrate fundamental skills necessary for Acting professionals including focus, language, memorization, physical poise and choice of audition material.
2. Students completing our BFA in Acting will demonstrate the values and attitudes required by professional actors, which may include punctuality, meeting deadlines, professional presentation, etc.
3. Students completing our BFA Acting program will be prepared for advanced training or entrance into the profession.
4. Students completing our BFA in Acting will demonstrate knowledge of the fundamental concepts of Acting including monologues, singing, and dancing.
5. Students completing our BFA Acting theatre degree will be able to effectively communicate discipline specific content verbally and in writing.

Critical Thinking

6. Students completing our BFA theatre degree program will be able to critically evaluate a work of art by placing it in its historical context and evaluating the aesthetic components.
7. Students completing our BFA in Acting will demonstrate the ability to synthesize their coursework by appropriately applying the concepts and skills learned in different courses toward a unified product.

Communication

8. Students completing our BFA Acting theatre degree will be able to communicate effectively through writing and speaking.

Assessment of Theatre: Acting, B.F.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- exams
- projects
- critiques
- papers
- presentations
- internship evaluations
- reviews

