

Operational Excellence and Assessment Support

Academic Learning Compacts

College of Arts and Humanities Academic Learning Compacts

Theatre - Design and Technology - B.F.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Students in the BFA in Design and Technology program will demonstrate fundamental skills in design and/or technology including reading ground plans, drafting, electrics, sound engineering, drawing, painting, rendering, sewing, etc.
2. Students in the BFA in Design and Technology program will demonstrate the values and attitudes required by professional theatrical designers and/or technicians including punctuality, collaboration, meeting deadlines, professional visual presentation, etc.
3. Students in the BFA Design and Technology program will be recognized for achievement in discipline specific knowledge, skills and/or values which demonstrates we are providing the best Undergraduate education possible.
4. Students completing our BFA Design and Technology program will be prepared for advanced training or entrance into the profession.
5. Students completing our BFA program will be able to evaluate a work of art by placing it in its historical context, evaluating the aesthetic aspects of the production and correctly using a standard citation format.
6. Students completing our BFA Design and Technology theatre degree will be able to effectively communicate discipline specific content verbally and in writing.
7. Students will show growth and development in Discipline-specific knowledge, skills, attitudes and behaviors as they progress through the program.
8. Students completing our BFA in Design and Technology will demonstrate knowledge of the fundamental concepts of Design and Technology including the elements and principles of design, scenery construction, costume construction, lighting and sound technology, etc.

Critical Thinking

1. Students completing our BFA program will be able to evaluate a work of art by placing it in its historical context, evaluating the aesthetic aspects of the production and correctly using a standard citation format.

2. Students completing our BFA in Design and Technology will demonstrate the ability to synthesize their coursework.

Communication

1. Students completing our BFA program will be able to evaluate a work of art by placing it in its historical context, evaluating the aesthetic aspects of the production and correctly using a standard citation format.
2. Students completing our BFA Design and Technology theatre degree will be able to effectively communicate discipline specific content verbally and in writing.
3. Students completing our BFA in Design and Technology will demonstrate knowledge of the fundamental concepts of Design and Technology including the elements and principles of design, scenery construction, costume construction, lighting and sound technology, etc.

Assessment of Theatre - Design and Technology - B.F.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Tests
- Critiques
- Papers
- Presentations
- Portfolios
- Reviews