

College of Arts and Humanities Academic Learning Compacts

Theatre Studies, B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Students completing our BA in theatre will demonstrate knowledge of the fundamental concepts of theatre including theatre history, dramatic literature and script analysis.
2. Students completing our BA in Theatre Studies will demonstrate the values and attitudes required in professional theatre which may include punctuality, meeting deadlines, constructive peer evaluation, etc.
3. Students completing our BA in Theatre Studies will demonstrate fundamental skills in theatre which may include theatre technology, theatre management, performing, etc.

Critical Thinking

4. Students completing our BA in theatre will demonstrate knowledge of the fundamental concepts of theatre including theatre history, dramatic literature and script analysis.
5. Students completing our BA theatre degree program will be able to evaluate art work by analyzing and evaluating the aesthetic aspects of a theatrical production.

Communication

6. Students completing our BA Theatre Studies program will be able to communicate effectively with appropriate use of discipline specific language.
7. Students completing our BA Theatre Studies program will demonstrate the ability to conduct discipline appropriate research.
8. Students completing our BA in Theatre Studies will demonstrate the ability to work collaboratively.

Assessment of Theatre Studies, B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- tests
- critiques
- Theatre Production/Performance labs.
- presentations