

ACADEMIC LEARNING COMPACTS

COLLEGE OF COMMUNITY INNOVATION AND EDUCATION CRIMINAL JUSTICE - B.S./B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Discipline Specific: Criminal Justice students should be able to recognize and articulate the foundational assumptions, central ideas, and dominant criticisms of crime and criminal justice theories.
2. Discipline Specific: Criminal Justice students will demonstrate an ability to design a research project and intelligently consume the results of criminal justice research conducted and presented by others.
3. Discipline Specific: Graduating Criminal Justice students will acquire a basic knowledge of the fundamental principles of criminal law and procedure and how the law affects criminal justice operations in the following areas:
 - a. Law enforcement
 - b. Courts (juvenile and adult)
 - c. Corrections
4. UCF Criminal Justice graduating seniors will have an understanding of issues of diversity in criminal justice through either specific required courses and/or the integration of these issues within the program's curriculum. Further, criminal justice graduating seniors will be able to employ ethical perspectives and judgments in applying this knowledge to related problems and changing fact situations.

Critical Thinking

1. Discipline Specific: Criminal Justice students should be able to recognize and articulate the foundational assumptions, central ideas, and dominant criticisms of crime and criminal justice theories.
2. Discipline Specific: Criminal Justice students will demonstrate an ability to design a research project and intelligently consume the results of criminal justice research conducted and presented by others.
3. UCF Criminal Justice graduating seniors will have an understanding of issues of diversity in criminal justice through either specific required courses and/or the integration of these issues within the program's curriculum. Further, criminal justice graduating seniors will be able to employ ethical perspectives and judgments in applying this knowledge to related problems and changing fact situations.

Communication

1. UCF Criminal Justice graduating seniors will have an understanding of issues of diversity in criminal justice through either specific required courses and/or the integration of these issues within the program's curriculum. Further, criminal justice graduating seniors will be able to employ ethical perspectives and judgments in applying this knowledge to related problems and changing fact situations.

Assessment of Criminal Justice - B.S./B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Exams
- Papers
- Projects
- Oral presentations
- Scoring rubrics