

College of Arts and Humanities Academic Learning Compacts

History - B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Students will demonstrate the ability to critically analyze and evaluate historical evidence.
2. Students will demonstrate the ability to interpret historical events and explain change over time.
3. Students will communicate effectively in writing. In particular, students will demonstrate ability to write and support a thesis statement.
4. Students will demonstrate the ability to conduct a research project based on primary documents as well as secondary documents.
5. As another administrative measure, but one that will certainly benefit students as our program moves ever forward, we will be re-assessing the common course objectives and goals for the HIS 4150 course to align with the new capstone course, HIS 3600, creating a more cohesive 1-2 program of these requirements.

Critical Thinking

1. Students will demonstrate the ability to critically analyze and evaluate historical evidence.
2. Students will demonstrate the ability to interpret historical events and explain change over time.
3. Students will communicate effectively in writing. In particular, students will demonstrate ability to write and support a thesis statement.
4. Students will demonstrate the ability to conduct a research project based on primary documents as well as secondary documents.
5. As another administrative measure, but one that will certainly benefit students as our program moves ever forward, we will be re-assessing the common course objectives and goals for the HIS 4150 course to align with the new capstone course, HIS 3600, creating a more cohesive 1-2 program of these requirements.

Communication

1. Students will demonstrate the ability to critically analyze and evaluate historical evidence.

2. Students will demonstrate the ability to interpret historical events and explain change over time.
3. Students will communicate effectively in writing. In particular, students will demonstrate ability to write and support a thesis statement.
4. Students will demonstrate the ability to conduct a research project based on primary documents as well as secondary documents.
5. As another administrative measure, but one that will certainly benefit students as our program moves ever forward, we will be re-assessing the common course objectives and goals for the HIS 4150 course to align with the new capstone course, HIS 3600, creating a more cohesive 1-2 program of these requirements.

Assessment of History - B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Tests
- Projects
- Essays
- Papers
- Presentations