

College of Arts and Humanities
Academic Learning Compacts

Spanish - B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Communication and language proficiency: Graduating seniors will demonstrate proficiency in the four set of skills in Spanish: speaking and speech; listening and understanding; reading and comprehension; writing and composition.
2. Cultural and scholarly competence: Graduating seniors will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of Spanish-speaking cultural and literary diversity pondering convergences and divergences among Hispanics in the United States.
3. Linguistic and philological awareness: Graduating seniors will demonstrate the ability to compare linguistics differences between regions and philological intricacies in the Spanish language as it varies from country to country and region to region.

Critical Thinking

1. Communication and language proficiency: Graduating seniors will demonstrate proficiency in the four set of skills in Spanish: speaking and speech; listening and understanding; reading and comprehension; writing and composition.
2. Cultural and scholarly competence: Graduating seniors will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of Spanish-speaking cultural and literary diversity pondering convergences and divergences among Hispanics in the United States.
3. Linguistic and philological awareness: Graduating seniors will demonstrate the ability to compare linguistics differences between regions and philological intricacies in the Spanish language as it varies from country to country and region to region.

Communication

1. Communication and language proficiency: Graduating seniors will demonstrate proficiency in the four set of skills in Spanish: speaking and speech; listening and understanding; reading and comprehension; writing and composition.

2. Cultural and scholarly competence: Graduating seniors will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of Spanish-speaking cultural and literary diversity pondering convergences and divergences among Hispanics in the United States.
3. Linguistic and philological awareness: Graduating seniors will demonstrate the ability to compare linguistics differences between regions and philological intricacies in the Spanish language as it varies from country to country and region to region.

Assessment of Spanish - B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Tests
- Projects
- Papers
- Oral and written presentations