

College of Business Administration
Academic Learning Compacts

Management - B.S.B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Students will demonstrate that they possess an acceptable level of management knowledge and skills, which includes management terminology, practices, and policies.
2. Students will describe the impact of management principles and policies on both individual behavior and organizational performance.
3. Students will describe the impact of internal and external factors related to management decision-making.
4. Students will identify interpersonal management styles and describe their impact on individual and team behavior.
5. Students will apply teamwork processes and practices by working collaboratively to accomplish management related tasks.
6. Students will describe ethical decision-making processes and social responsibility related to management situations.

Critical Thinking

1. Students will identify interpersonal management styles and describe their impact on individual and team behavior.
2. Students will demonstrate critical thinking skills by analyzing and evaluating management specific problems, including those related to interpersonal issues, and using the results to make appropriate recommendations.

Communication

1. Students will demonstrate effective written and oral communication skills related to topics in management.
2. Students will apply teamwork processes and practices by working collaboratively to accomplish management related tasks.

Assessment of Management - B.S.B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Exams

- Individual and team projects
- Case studies
- Written papers
- Oral presentations