

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

COLLEGE OF COMMUNITY INNOVATION AND EDUCATION EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT - B.S./B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Students in the undergraduate program will be prepared to lead and manage in the field of emergency management.
2. Students in the undergraduate emergency management program will demonstrate the application of technology in emergency management.
3. Students in the Undergraduate Emergency Management program will be able to articulate and apply the principles of emergency management and network response to natural and manmade disaster.

Critical Thinking

1. Students in the undergraduate emergency management program will demonstrate the application of technology in emergency management.

Communication

1. Students in the undergraduate program will be prepared to lead and manage in the field of emergency management.
2. Students in the undergraduate emergency management program will demonstrate the application of technology in emergency management.
3. Students in the Undergraduate Emergency Management program will be able to articulate and apply the principles of emergency management and network response to natural and manmade disaster.

Assessment of Emergency Management - B.S./B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Tests
- Papers
- Projects
- Case Studies
- Presentations