

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

COLLEGE OF SCIENCES COMMUNICATION AND CONFLICT - B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Students who graduate with a BA in Communication and Conflict will acquire an understanding of communication research methods and intercultural communication.
2. Students will demonstrate communication skills and behavior throughout their program.
3. Communication and conflict students will indicate positive affect for their program and increased knowledge related to communication and conflict principles.

Critical Thinking

1. Students who graduate with a BA in Communication and Conflict will acquire an understanding of communication research methods and intercultural communication.

Communication

1. Students who graduate with a BA in Communication and Conflict will acquire an understanding of communication research methods and intercultural communication.
2. Students will demonstrate communication skills and behavior throughout their program.
3. Communication and conflict students will indicate positive affect for their program and increased knowledge related to communication and conflict principles.

Assessment of Communication and Conflict - B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Embedded questions
- Tests
- Projects
- Presentations
- Internship
- Survey