STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

COLLEGE OF SCIENCES
DIGITAL MEDIA - B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Students will produce interactive works that apply competent technical skills.
2. Students will establish how their work relates to contemporary and historical context and through the use of domain specific language
3. Students will produce interactive works that demonstrate advanced technical skills.

Critical Thinking

1. Students will produce interactive works that apply competent technical skills.
2. Students will establish how their work relates to contemporary and historical context and through the use of domain specific language
3. Students will produce interactive works that demonstrate advanced technical skills.

Communication

1. Students will produce interactive works that apply competent technical skills.
2. Students will establish how their work relates to contemporary and historical context and through the use of domain specific language
3. Students will produce interactive works that demonstrate advanced technical skills.

Assessment of Digital Media - B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Presentations
- Projects
- Exam