

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

COLLEGE OF NURSING NURSING RN - B.S.N.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Analyze and provide the highest quality of nursing care across the lifespan and continuum of healthcare environments ranging from bedside interactions to participation in the formulation and promotion of health care policies and processes.
2. Integrate principles of leadership, management, and health information science, through intra- and inter- disciplinary collaborations and patient care technology to address client needs and outcomes.
3. Actualize professional values such as altruism, autonomy, integrity, social justice, and respect for human dignity.

Critical Thinking

1. Analyze and provide the highest quality of nursing care across the lifespan and continuum of healthcare environments ranging from bedside interactions to participation in the formulation and promotion of health care policies and processes.
2. Integrate principles of leadership, management, and health information science, through intra- and inter- disciplinary collaborations and patient care technology to address client needs and outcomes.
3. Actualize professional values such as altruism, autonomy, integrity, social justice, and respect for human dignity.

Communication

1. Analyze and provide the highest quality of nursing care across the lifespan and continuum of healthcare environments ranging from bedside interactions to participation in the formulation and promotion of health care policies and processes.
2. Integrate principles of leadership, management, and health information science, through intra- and inter- disciplinary collaborations and patient care technology to address client needs and outcomes.
3. Actualize professional values such as altruism, autonomy, integrity, social justice, and respect for human dignity.

Assessment of Nursing RN - B.S.N. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Projects
- Holistic Patient Assessment
- End of Program Survey