

Operational Excellence and Assessment Support

Academic Learning Compacts

Rosen College of Hospitality Management Academic Learning Compacts

Senior Living Management - B.S.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

- 1. Graduates of the Senior Living Management Program will demonstrate knowledge and skills related to senior living and healthcare accepted practices in accounting, finance, marketing, information technology, guest services, leadership, and sustainability by completing specific courses in hospitality and senior living management.

Critical Thinking

- 1. Graduates of the Senior Living Management Program will demonstrate the ability to analyze and solve industry related problems identified by senior living professionals, including legal and ethical issues in senior living and guest service interactions, and to recognize where legal problems may arise.
- 2. Graduates Students who complete Senior Living Management core classes will demonstrate skills for strong job placement thus harnessing the power to transform livelihoods.

Communication

- 1. Graduates of the program will demonstrate proficiency in written communications used by professionals in the senior living industry.

Assessment of Senior Living Management - B.S. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Tests
- Projects
- Discuss evaluations
- Presentation rubrics
- Portfolios
- Internship evaluations